

Congressman Pence gave the following special order speech from the floor of the United States House of Representatives regarding the right to life and Congressman Pence's principled stand on the side of the unborn.